DEFENDANTS VAUGHN PERRET AND CHARLES LEARY'S
MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE AND TO LIMIT VALUE OF PLAINTIFF'S ACTION BASED ON FRESH ADMISSION, WAIVER

COME NOW Defendants Vaughn Perret and Charles Leary, appearing pro se, and file this their Motion for Judicial Notice and to Limit Value of Plaintiff's Action based on Fresh Admission and Waiver, and would show that the Plaintiff has filed with Mississippi state court documents admitting that this action is worth a fraction of $10,000 and not for over $180,000 as stated in the Third Amended Complaint, and for the reasons discussed in their memorandum brief in support of this motion, which is filed contemporaneously herewith. Plaintiff has misrepresented the value of his claim to this Court and to the Defendants, who relied on his representations in critical decision making regarding this case, which has dragged on far too long.

Defendants Leary and Perret respectfully move this Court to find Plaintiff has either waived or must be estopped from claiming more than a fraction of $10,000, and for such general relief as the Court deems appropriate in the premises.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED, this the 15th day of September, 2017.

CHARLES LEARY, DEFENDANT
